Dwight D. Eisenhower, '15

FOREWORD

Dwight David Eisenhower graduated from the United States Military Academy as a member of the class of 1915, "the class the stars fell on." He went on to have a career, both military and civilian, that ranks among that select group of the most distinguished of all the graduates of the Academy. October 14, 1990 marks the one hundredth anniversary of his birth. In commemoration of this event, I, on behalf of the United States Military Academy Library, have prepared this bibliography of materials about this extraordinary man and his career.
